

Section 143

The Labour Battalions

The 11th Battalion

The 11th Battalion

The 11th Battalion was formed on the 3rd June 1916 when the 10th battalion was full. The first postings beginning with number 24358 were on the 2nd June 1916. Thereafter most of the men classified for labour duties went to the 11th although a few went to the 3rd and other regiments in Southern Command. The postings were reciprocated from number 25227 when men were posted from the Glosters and DCLI to the 11th.

When the 10th Battalion was mobilised they were short of establishment due to a measles epidemic and 20 men were sent from the 11th to the 10th to make up the numbers.

Le Havre

The 11th Battalion moved to France on the 24th July 1916. under Lt Col W Bodle. When they arrived they were put under the control of the Commandant of Le Havre and were based at Frechencourt.

Labour Corps

They were incorporated into the Labour Corps on the 9th May 1917. They became 160 Coy (95401 to 96000) and 161 Coy (96001 to 96600)

The two companies initially formed part of 57 Group and moved to Bapaume to support 5th Army HQ but on the 30th May 1917 160 Coy was transferred to 60 Group to support IV Corps

For the subsequent history of these two companies see section 146
